

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Asia Emergency Management Conference 2016 gathered participants from 20 regions

Hong Kong, 13 May 2016 – The Asia Emergency Management Conference (AEMC) ended with success on 12 May 2016 at the Venetian Macao. AEMC 2016 has attracted participants worldwide from USA, Canada, United Arab Emirates, UK, Norway, Germany, Australia, New Zealand, Thailand, Indonesia etc. to exchange valuable experiences, share lessons learned and explore new business opportunities.

“For AEMC 2016, we are happy to have invited 33 international speakers and experts from 16 countries and regions to share their knowledge during the 3-days program,” said Mr. Kenny Lo, Chief Executive of Vertical Exhibition Services Co., Ltd., organizer of AEMC.

A total of 30 sessions, including two panel discussions and three practical workshops have been presented by the international experts. Mr. Gary Y.J. Geng, Operations Director at Macau International Airport has found the topics very insightful and said, “Although civil aviation is a highly regulated industry, we should always be vigilant and strive for the best practices worldwide to meet possible new challenges. The content delivered at AEMC 2006 has been very useful and inspiring”.

The visitors and delegates came from a broad range of industries, such as transport and aviation, entertainment and events, public relations, marketing, health and safety, government institutions and many more. The companies represented were among others Administration of Airports Ltd., Air China, Asia World-Expo Management Limited, Australian Consulate-General Hong Kong, Cathay Pacific, CNOOC Safety Technology Service Co. Ltd., Companhia de Electricidade de Macau, Galaxy Entertainment Group, Mead Johnson Nutrition, Melco Crown Entertainment, Prime Marketing & Promotional Service Co. Ltd., Singapore Technologies Electronics Limited etc.

Two further highlights of the event have been the International Dinner and the Networking Cocktail, bringing together the speakers, exhibitors, visitors and delegates to mingle and expand their global network.
