Baci Lingerie Conquers Asia

Miami, FL-July 21, 2010- Baci Lingerie, the newest and hottest brand of sexy lingerie, is expanding into Asia in breathtaking speed with one goal in mind--To Conquer Asia.

Baci Lingerie will expand into the Asia market as it opens its tenth corporate store of 500 later this month (photos below) and will also be the main sponsor of the Asia Adult Expo in Macau August 20-22. Baci Lingerie is making its mark throughout the world by becoming the main sponsors of the biggest and most attended international trade shows world wide. With record new exhibitors set to attend the AAE Show next month, the latest in adult entertainment trends and products, including Baci Lingerie, will be unveiled at the 2010 AAE show floor. At the moment Baci Lingerie is the hottest and most talked about lingerie brand in the world and it is perfect fit for the fast growing AAE show. The AAE show is quickly becoming Asia's world's largest tradeshow for adult entertainment and products. Baci Lingerie plans a grandiose exhibit this year as they feel that Asia is a key component in building their world wide brand. Baci Lingerie will be the main sponsor of the show and will display one of four of their exquisite booths, which cost over $950,000 and which will remain in Asia to attend future trade shows.

"The AAE show will be a very important show for us and we are extremely pleased and excited to be the main sponsor of the trade fair" said Robert Rosen, Chief Operating Officer, of Internetmarketing Miami. "We felt that this highly attended fair, which is largest erotic trade show in Asia, and was the perfect match for our introduction into the Asian markets". Arosia Tong, project manager for the AAE show, said "It is a very exciting to have Baci Lingerie as our main sponsor and look forward to working with the revolutionary company and brand for many years to come".

Affordable luxury will be on display as Baci Lingerie will exhibit their high quality lingerie, which comes with the best photographs and art work, in beautifully designed custom packaging for the lowest possible pricing in the world. Also, Baci Lingerie will be releasing their plans for Queen Sizes of lingerie which has been highly requested by many customers throughout the world. Baci Lingerie will also provide attendees of the show special give away gifts as their appreciation for supporting the brand that will change the lingerie industry.

To compliment the official sponsorship of the AAE show, Baci Lingerie is also proud to announce the opening of its tenth showroom in China (pictures below). "We are planning to open 190 more showroom in that region in the next two years and plan to have 500 stores open within the next seven years" stated Mr. Rosen. Our goal is to franchise chain stores with the Baci Lingerie concept so that we can enter directly into the B to C area. Learning exactly what the customer wants and desires is an integral part of building a strong brand. With chains stores this will give us the insight and direct information our finger right on the pulse of the market. The showrooms and chain stores will display the beautifully designed photos of our latest works of art, the elegant chandlers, and sleek 180" LED televisions walls running our revolutionary lingerie and eyelash videos. The showroom will be modeled after the stunning booth that will be displayed at all major fairs and expos worldwide. Buyer will be able to visit the showroom and view the latest styles of Baci Lingerie and upcoming collections and sub-collection. Buyers will also be able to place orders directly at the showroom and will be pampered with the personal attention of our customer service representatives. We want to captivate the customer by creating an experience that will be enjoyable and unforgettable.

Baci Lingerie welcomes all customers, partners and fans of lingerie to join them at the AAE show in Macau and experience a brand like you never have before.
