

We-Vibe – Best Selling Couples Toy In The World

The We-Vibe, brainchild of a suburban Canadian couple and designed in Canada by Standard Innovation Corporation, is the world's most popular rechargeable vibrator for couples. Almost a million people already use it to inject more fun and intimacy into their loving relationships. The silicone-encased, C-shaped We-Vibe can be worn while making love, allowing both partners to enjoy the vibrations for a truly shared and intimate experience. "The We-Vibe makes it easier for partners to share orgasms simultaneously, which increases their sexual satisfaction and leads to deeper intimacy," states Sexual Health expert Dr. Ava Cadell.

We-Vibe is a global sensation, garnering rave reviews, massive media coverage and major industry awards. It was named Top Selling Product, Most Innovative Product, Hot Product, and Toy of the Year. "The unprecedented success of the We-Vibe is a global phenomenon that reflects a deep desire in couples to be happier in their relationships," states We-Vibe company President Nelson Wood. "We-Vibe provides a meaningful, healthy and fun way for couples to enhance their sexual wellness."

Launched in early 2008, the We-Vibe is now distributed on every continent and in over 50 countries by thousands of retailers, including leading drug store chains, luxury boutiques, and adult stores. It is the top-selling product for many retailers, often selling triple the volume of other leading products.

Most recently, We-Vibe was recognized as the best-selling adult toy in Australia. "We-Vibe is the top-selling product in the country," states Michael Bassett, CEO of Calvista, the largest adult products distributor in Australia. This is truly an exceptional product that appeals to a very wide range of couples who are looking to inject more fun and intimacy into their relationships."
