

The organizing committee of AFE is glad to announce that AFE 2012 will be held on 17-19 May 2012. The Theme of the fair 2012 is “Think Globally, Act Locally”, which truly reflects the vision and mission of AFE. The convention has been promoting education, networking and sharing, and all industry leaders in this event in the past 4 years have been generously sharing their valuable experiences and visions, and all these will help funeral industries around the world to borrow smart ideas and upgrade their professionalism.

Australia has been chosen as the focus country in 2012, and the supporting organization: AFDA’s annual conference will be held concurrently with AFE 2012. AFE2012 is already opened for early registration, where privileges will be enjoyed by both exhibitors and visitors, please contact the organizer for further details.

See you in AFE2012!
