AgriPro & Tech Asia Expo Sets Up Specialized Zones to Attract Regional Leading Corporate to Participate!

Hong Kong's specialized agricultural and technological trade fair, AgriPro & Tech Asia Expo (APA) will be held during 10 - 12 December 2020 (Thu - Sat) at the Hong Kong Convention & Exhibition Centre (HKCEC). With the success of past editions, the numbers of exhibitors and buyers are expected to have continuous increase this year.

“As a professional agricultural trade platform, different specialized product zones will be set up in APA this year, including Agri Tech Asia; Seafood Asia; Meat Asia; Green & Organic Food Asia and Food Ingredient Asia. We expect to attract more regional leading industry players to exhibit and explore new markets.” said Mr. Kenny Lo, the Chief Executive of Vertical Expo Services Co., Ltd.

APA is closely connected with local and international organizations, including F.S.I.(C.H.K.) Association; Kowloon Fruit & Vegetable Merchants Association Limited; Chinese Organic Agrification Association; Hong Kong Imported Vegetable Wholesale Merchants Association; Hong Kong Chamber of Seafood; Hong Kong Fish/ Vegetable Marketing Organization and Overseas Fruit & Vegetable Merchants Organization; national pavilions by official government bodies, such as China, European Union, India, Japan, Korea and Poland. By having a “Direct Business Matching” session, APA2020 hopes to facilitate the transactions for both exhibitors and buyers.

APA acts as an important platform for nationals to expand their business to overseas and overseas players to explore market. Agro-trade offices from China, e.g. Henan, Hunan, Fujian, Shandong, India, Japan, Korea and Poland are organizing pavilions to attend this international trade event in order to meet their potential business partners. With the theme of “Quality Ingredients”, some exhibitors will introduce the new strain of eggs, vegetables, oranges and organic food with a competitive price in APA2020.

APA covers a full range of exhibits: general provisions, vegetables & fruits, poultry & meat, aqua products and seafood, green & organic products, processed agri-products, food ingredients and agri-tech etc. Importers, exporters, traders, distributors, retailers, wholesalers, hotel & catering, consulting & service providers, finance & investment service providers and related government bodies from the world will be invited to the show.

Register now to enjoy 3-day expo free admission and being listed on APA website for easy business matching. Please visit show website: www.AgriProAsia.com for visitor registration.
